Over the past several years, Triton has meaningfully advanced the diversity of the Board by recruiting new directors with exceptional qualifications and experiences who reflect diverse backgrounds and perspectives. Triton’s 10 current Board members will all stand for re-election at the 2023 Annual General Meeting. Of the 11 candidates standing for election, which will include Ms. Pizzuto, nine are independent, and the slate of director nominees will include three women, two of whom identify as ethnically diverse. If elected, Ms. Pizzuto would serve on the Audit Committee of the Board.
